 Click to Print

SAVE THIS | EMAIL THIS | Close

More Metro news

SHORT TAKES: CITY EDITION

UNION-TRIBUNE

January 31, 2008

Johnson students soar in space patch contest

SAN DIEGO: It's mission accomplished for the students at Johnson Elementary School in San Diego.

Pupils designed award-winning patches that would adorn the uniforms of astronauts on imaginary space missions. Out of more than 500 entries nationwide, the school earned a second-place award and an honorable mention in a national mission patch contest sponsored by Space Explorers.

The winning entries are posted on the Web site, space-explorers.com.

■ Do you need to get word out about a newsmaker or upcoming community event? Send information to david.ogul@uniontrib.com

Find this article at:

<http://www.signonsandiego.com/news/metro/20080131-9999-lz1cz31brief.html>

 Click to Print

SAVE THIS | EMAIL THIS | Close

Check the box to include the list of links referenced in the article.